JOHN CROFT

My passion is in making people's dreams come true by assisting in the development of outrageously successful projects for the Great Turning; the building of a new win-win-win culture that builds a safe and sustaining world for future generations.

YANINA TANEVA

I work as a "catalyst" and a "fuel" for small ideas and imaginative people with extraordinary potential for social change. And maybe now is the exact time to redefine the word "development" and to orient it towards human happiness.

CLAUDIAN DOBOS

My professional journey goes along design, communication and image, management, strategy and facilitation. I am passionate about networking, sensing the future and manifesting the embodied gifts. I love to explore the human evolutionary capacity and its inter-being potential.

NARA PETROVIC

How to live in the wilderness as an urban, civilized person? How to find a balance between harmony with nature and being connected with the society as it is – without fear, cynicism, grief, anger? Such questions fascinate me and guide me on my inner quest towards genuine humanness.
